

HI, I'M DR. ZIAH COLON

Educational Consultant & Life Coach

Dr. Ziah Colon

WHO AM I ?

Dr. Ziah Colon

Dr. Ziah M. Colon is a higher education executive, educator, consultant, pastor, and nonprofit leader dedicated to advancing excellence in education, leadership development, and community engagement. She currently serves as the Structured Teaching Assistant Program Coordinator at Morgan State University, where she leads and manages more than 140 graduate teaching assistants across multiple academic disciplines. In this role, she oversees program operations, develops comprehensive training initiatives, and facilitates professional development programs that strengthen instructional excellence, faculty support, and student success. In addition to her administrative leadership, Dr. Owens-Colon serves as an Instructor of Record for English 101 and English 102 and teaches Women's and Gender Studies at the university level. Her passion for teaching is centered on developing critical thinkers, fostering inclusive learning environments, and preparing students for academic and professional success.

Dr. Colon is the President and CEO of The Colon Consulting Group, where she provides strategic consulting, leadership development, higher education solutions, curriculum design, program assessment, professional training, and organizational development services for colleges, universities, nonprofit organizations, and community partners. Her expertise includes teaching assistant program development, faculty and staff training, student success initiatives, strategic planning, leadership coaching, and organizational effectiveness. She also serves as Pastor of The Holy Covenant Church of Christ, Inc., where she provides spiritual leadership, community outreach, and faith-based educational programming. Her ministry emphasizes servant leadership, empowerment, and holistic community transformation. Dr. Owens-Colon holds a Doctor of Education in Community College Leadership, a Master of Science in Counseling with a concentration in Addiction, and a strong commitment to interdisciplinary scholarship and service. Her research focuses on Black maternal health and nursing, with particular emphasis on advancing health equity, improving maternal outcomes, and addressing systemic disparities affecting Black women and families. Her academic and professional work is grounded in evidence-based practice, equity-centered leadership, and institutional transformation.

A committed advocate for community advancement, Dr. Owens-Colon is the Founder and former President of I AM Baltimore, a youth-focused nonprofit organization that provided educational enrichment, mentoring, leadership development, and GED preparation programming for middle and high school students. She also serves as President of the Robert L. Owens Foundation, an organization dedicated to expanding educational opportunities, supporting veterans, and strengthening communities through outreach, advocacy, and service.

Positive Affirmation

I CHOOSE FAITH. I WALK IN PEACE. I LIVE ON PURPOSE.

I AM NOT ALONE.

God is with me in every moment, guiding, strengthening, and loving me.

I CHOOSE PEACE.

I release worry and trust God to handle what I cannot control.

I AM GROWING.

Every challenge I face is shaping me into the woman God created me to be.

I CHOOSE GRATITUDE.

I focus on the good, celebrate the blessings, and expect more to come.

I AM PURPOSED.

I walk in my God-given purpose with confidence, courage, and joy.

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

PHILIPPIANS 4:13

Today I choose faith over fear and hope over doubt.

I am blessed, capable & enough.

— I AM LOVED. I AM ENOUGH. I AM STRONG. I AM HIS. — Today is my day!
